My dear Ronnie,

It was a strange wondrous evening yesterday leaving so much to think about. I still find myself rather disturbed by it. I find myself rather disturbed by it.

But I think they can do that without my ideals, even if we apply the same perfection and correctness to our memory, we should produce such good history instead for an opera called "Raglan" in thirty years time?

Love,

[Signature]