

INDEX

The Chancellor's Private Secretary advises as follows:-

1. There is no intention of changing or ceasing to publish RPI as presently constituted.
2. There is no intention of changing the existing prices basis of calculating the uprating of pensions and benefits.

If asked, we can volunteer that increases in fuel costs are a real change in the economy and there can be no automatic expectation that it can be matched in wages.

HGR