

pps.

CAROLINE STEPHENS

In principle I think it would be no bad thing for the Prime Minister to go back to Grantham.

However, such a visit would need very careful planning. I would remind you that the old Roberts Shop is derelict and looks a mess.

If we were thinking of going to Grantham I think it is important that the building is revamped or demolished.

D.H.

Derek Howe

5th October 1981