Dear Derek,

Before going with the PM tomorrow to the World Gov. Conference, I thought you ought to know the very sad news that George Newell died this afternoon of a heart attack.

I am so sorry to have to tell you by letter rather than in person, but thought you should know asap. I hope all goes well at the conference.

Herewith a folder of bits and pieces. The PM has everything too,
but these are spares.

Love fully.
