Dear Richard,

FALKLANDS DINNER

The Prime Minister's dinner last night to celebrate the success of the Falklands campaign undoubtedly gave a lot of pleasure to those who attended it and, so far at any rate, seems to have avoided the many opportunities for giving offence. I am writing to thank you most warmly for all the help which you gave us over the guest list and other detailed arrangements.

I am copying this letter to Richard Hatfield (Cabinet Office) and Michael Jay (Foreign and Commonwealth Office).

Yours sincerely,

Richard Mottram Esq.,
Ministry of Defence.
