

Falklands
Victory Parade

14th October 1982

I am writing to send you my warmest thanks, not only for your generous hospitality at luncheon on Tuesday, but also for all that you and the City of London did in planning and arranging that truly memorable Parade.

It was a day that I will never forget.

It was clear that the Parade and Luncheon were deeply appreciated by all those who had the privilege of being there.

Would you please pass on to all those who were responsible for arranging the occasion my congratulations and most grateful thanks.

I hope that it is some reward for all your meticulous planning to know that the whole day proceeded without a fault and that you gave so much happiness and so deep a sense of pride to all who were there.

The Rt Hon The Lord Mayor of London
