Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs has the honour to acknowledge

(5) receipt of the Ambassador's note of 14 June with which he forwarded a message from M Mohamed Ben Ahmed Abdelghani and would be grateful if the following reply could be sent from Mrs Thatcher to His Excellency the Prime Minister.

'Thank you for your recent kind message of good wishes on the occasion of the Birthday of Her Majesty The Queen. I share your wish that relations between our two countries will develop and prosper over the coming year. I hope we shall have an opportunity to meet soon.'

Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs avails himself of this opportunity to renew to the Ambassador the assurances of his highest consideration.
