

STATEMENT BY THE PRIME MINISTER

2ND AUGUST 1982

I have heard with great sadness of the tragic death of Jocelyn Cadbury.

Though he had only been in the House for three years he was widely liked and respected.

Parliament has lost one of its most promising younger Members and his Constituents a very assiduous M.P.