

PRIME MINISTER

The European Council in Venice is to be held on Thursday 12 and Friday 13 June. Michael Alexander feels that you will probably not have to leave for Venice until the morning of Thursday 12.

However, the preceding day you are committed to speaking at the Press Association Annual Lunch and attending the National Union Executive Committee dinner. This seems a far too heavy programme and immediately before an important Council meeting, so could I please have your agreement to get you out of the NUEC dinner? I will then keep that evening free for you to read your briefs.
