

30 Thur Meetings 1700 - 1900 Carrington Wigoder Goodman.

Separate amendments (see separate papers) - We are in a mess; I always wished to make the issue Clay Cross. ~~Can~~ P. Carrington says troops so disgruntled that he cannot stop them dividing something (I do not blame him; there are at least half a dozen issues of principle). - But Goodman's amendment, in so far as it means anything, sells the pass
