Dear Prime Minister,

I was very honoured to be included in your dinner party on Monday night. It was the nicest thought to have the Falklands fraternity and, I know, much appreciated by those who came.

If I may say so, during our days in the South Atlantic, some of them pretty dark, it was good to feel that we had your resolution and the backing of Great Britain behind us.

Thank you once again for a very good evening.

*Yours Sincerely,
Michael Scott*
