Prime Minister's Visit to Berlin

Thank you for your letter of 14 October.

The Prime Minister is content with the arrangements for her visit to Berlin. She would be grateful if, as you suggest, Sir Antony Acland and Sir Jock Taylor would accompany her.

I told you on the telephone last week that the Prime Minister has asked for suggestions as to a special gesture which she might make at the Berlin Wall. She wondered, for example, whether it might be appropriate to lay a wreath to all those who had lost their lives in crossing the Wall. This could be a point of some importance in the public presentation of the visit and I should be most grateful for your early advice.
