

PRIME MINISTER

VISIT TO HAVANT - IAN LLOYD'S CONSTITUENCY

You told Ian Gow that you would have to go. I really don't know when. You are committed to going to Scotland to visit Polaris ^{on} at the last Saturday in July (31st) and you are already committed to a visit to Wales, Gloucestershire, Poole and the Isle of Wight in July. You have an extensive visit to Scotland at the end of August when you will address the CBI, attend a fete in the North East of Scotland and visit Balmoral. Almost immediately afterwards you are off on an extensive trip to Japan, China, Hong Kong, returning just in time for the Party Conference.

I am not prepared to give Ian Lloyd a day of your holiday.

*We shall still have to go.
not*
