

HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1 0AA

FOR DIARY.

16/2/75

My dear Quentin,

Of the many letters I have received, none has been kinder, more understanding or more perceptive than yours. I am well aware of the daunting task that lies ahead and of the total necessity of success, not for us but for Britain. People could so easily destroy their own freedom and not realize what they had lost, until it was too late. It will be a great honour for me to be inspired by you as leader and I look forward to it with pride.

Yours sincerely

Robert

I had written to her when I was invited to take the chair at the meeting (20 Feb) at the Europa hotel
