

General
Election

10 DOWNING STREET

STRICTLY PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

15th July 1982

Rt Hon Cecil

Gordon Reece - The General Election

Gordon Reece came to see the Prime Minister on 9th July.

The Prime Minister asked whether he would help her during and before the General Election. Gordon agreed.

He will, in effect, become the Prime Minister's Special Adviser.

The Prime Minister will now be asking Dr Armand Hammer to lunch so that she can ask whether he will release Gordon.

Gordon suggests that he might spend the following time with us:-

1. During this Summer Recess - 3 weeks
2. In March/April 1983 - 6 weeks
3. In August/September 1983 - 6 weeks
4. March, April and May 1984 (to cover the Election Campaign itself)

I would like to discuss with you whether we really do need to see as much of Gordon as he proposes. We were not able to have a properly structured talk with the Prime Minister. We need to decide exactly what it is that Gordon is going to do, and to ensure that we do not tread on more toes than we have to.

The Prime Minister likes Gordon and trusts him. I do not know him all that well. I have a very considerable respect for his professional ability.

IAN GOW

The Rt Hon Cecil Parkinson MP

General
Election

10 DOWNING STREET

STRICTLY PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

15th July 1982

Rt Hon Cecil,

Gordon Reece - The General Election

Gordon Reece came to see the Prime Minister on 9th July.

The Prime Minister asked whether he would help her during and before the General Election. Gordon agreed.

He will, in effect, become the Prime Minister's Special Adviser.

The Prime Minister will now be asking Dr Armand Hammer to lunch so that she can ask whether he will release Gordon.

Gordon suggests that he might spend the following time with us:-

1. During this Summer Recess - 3 weeks 405 74.11 78AA
2. In March/April 1983 - 4 weeks
3. In August/September 1983 - 3 weeks
4. March, April and May 1984 (to cover the Election Campaign itself)

I would like to discuss with you whether we really do need to see as much of Gordon as he proposes. We were not able to have a properly structured talk with the Prime Minister. We need to decide exactly what it is that Gordon is going to do, and to ensure that we do not tread on more toes than we have to.

The Prime Minister likes Gordon and trusts him. I do not know him all that well. I have a very considerable respect for his professional ability.

IAN GOW

The Rt Hon Cecil Parkinson MP