My visit to Racal yesterday was most exciting and encouraging.

I was enormously impressed by all that I saw and heard.

You have blazed a trail for innovation and success; to have increased your sales, in just 13 years, from £15 million to £750 million, and your pre-tax profits from £2 million to £100 million is a truly remarkable achievement.

Thank you for your splendid speech, and for all that you are doing for Britain.

Would you please pass on my grateful thanks and warm congratulations to all your staff.

With every good wish.

Sir Ernest Harrison OBE
