Dear John

It was nice of you to write. Thank you very much indeed.

We still have a lot to do but I am glad the victory was so decisive.

With all best wishes,

Yours

Raymond

Dear Margaret.

I must write & offer my congratulations on such a splendid victory. Another 4-5 years should see Britain out of danger, and the end of the far-left threat, too, I hope. Thatcher - Kohl - Pöhl - Reagan also add up to a formidable deterrent to USSR. In many ways the landslide verdict on unilateralism is the most important thing of all for arms negotiations.

With very best wishes to you both.

Yours ever,

John
