The Right Honourable Margaret Thatcher
Prime Minister
Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom.

Dear Prime Minister,

I wish to take this opportunity to express greetings and sincere thanks and appreciation for the hospitality and kind courtesies extended to me during my stay in your beautiful country.

I was delighted to have the opportunity to meet you and members of your Government and to discuss some of the problems facing my Government as well as matters of mutual interest.

Once again I extend my warm congratulations on your recent election victory and look forward to continued close relations and cooperation between our Governments. My best wishes for the continued progress of your country.

Please accept assurances of my highest consideration.

Yours sincerely,

V.C. Bird
Prime Minister.
