PRIME MINISTER'S

PERSONAL MESSAGE

SERIAL No. T 141<sup>AB</sup>/83

Vienna, the 30 September 1983

Your Excellency,

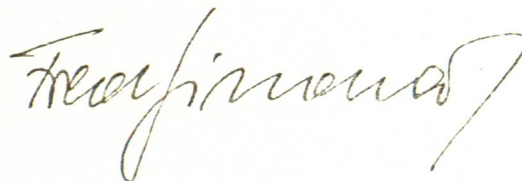

The United Kingdom and the Republic of Austria have traditionally enjoyed close and friendly relations.

In order to strengthen and underscore this good relationship, I have the honour to extend a very cordial invitation to your Excellency to pay an official visit to Austria.

I am convinced that such a visit would give us the chance to conduct a highly useful and informative exchange of views. In addition it would give you the opportunity to gain an impression of my country.

The details and a suitable date could be arranged through diplomatic channels.

Please accept the assurance of my highest consideration

The Rt. Hon. Margaret THATCHER, M.P.
Her Britannic Majesty's Prime Minister,
10 Downing Street,
London S.W.I.
