Dear Pierre,

I am writing to say how much I enjoyed my visit to Canada last week and to thank you for the time you gave to our talks in Ottawa and to entertaining me at such magnificent banquets in Toronto and Edmonton. The experience of addressing the joint session of the Canadian Parliament was an unforgettable one for me and I shall always value the rare and signal honour conferred on me by the invitation to do so.

The time available for the visit was all too short but I was very glad to have the opportunity of visiting Toronto and Edmonton. I found our personal talks, as always, stimulating and enjoyable and we were able to cover much useful ground. I greatly appreciated your kindness in giving the delightful lunch at your residence.

Thank you for the beautiful brooch which I will treasure as a memento of a very happy visit to Canada. I look forward to seeing you at CHOGM.

Yours ever
Pierre Elliott Trudeau
