THE PRIME MINISTER

17 October, 1983

Personal

Dear Judge King-Hamilton,

Thank you so much for your understanding letter of 10 October. I know that you did not ask for a reply but I wanted to say how grateful I am for your kind words and support. I know that Cecil Parkinson will be grateful too.

It has been a most difficult-week - and such a sad ending for everyone. These days it is not permitted to suffer one's wounds in

His Honour Judge Alan King-Hamilton

private. There has been no peace for Cecil since. Warm regards.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher
