Dear John

Thank you very much for your letter of 21 October. I am glad that we have managed to re-arrange the lunch which I was hoping to give for you, and I much look forward to seeing you then.

I am glad too that you are happily re-established in Morgan Grenfell. It is very good of you to offer your help, and you can be assured that I will keep your offer in mind. As you well know, it frequently happens that we have just such a need of help.

Thank you for asking about my eye. I have now recovered fully, and am back at full stretch. !

Yours

Raymond
