Dear Prime Minister,

So joins me in send you our deep thanks and appreciation for inviting us to pay a farewell call on you this morning. The fact that you came to be with us at Thatched House Lodge during that very "politically tense" evening, and that you took even more of your precious time to see us at No. 10 tells us more than words ever could - though when have words ever been a proper substitute for emotion!

In spite of the rather rough treatment I have received from R.R., I am going back to the U.S. to help him get re-elected as we desperately need him for 4 more years. Britain needs you for at least 5 more years! We shall pray for your good health, your safety, and your fulfillment - as well as for some "calm waters" in the years ahead.

Yours sincerely John
