15th September, 1970.

Dear Mr. Vaizey

I was delighted to receive your letter and greatly interested in its contents. I have not read the new book by Colin Lacey but I will ask the Department to get it.

I should very much like the opportunity of a talk with you, preferably privately outside the Department. I wonder if you would be free to come and have a drink in the early part of the evening of September 29th? Perhaps we could have a talk over sherry at my home at No.19, Flood Street, Chelsea, S.W.3. My secretary's telephone number is WHI.6240, Ext.579, (she is not in on Fridays).

*Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher*
