Ian Gow, Esq., MP., Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Prime Minister, 10 Downing Street,
LONDON.

Dear Ian,

Thank you for sending me Ian Dalziel's letter of 30th September on the subject of devolution in Scotland.

I have recently discussed this with the Secretary of State, the Chairman of the Party and my own office bearers and we are all agreed that no commitment to devolution for Scotland should be made between now and the election.

No doubt if you wish me to elaborate you will ask me to.

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

D.W. Mitchell
