Dear Ian,

Since the awful article in last Sunday's Sunday Times was couched in such a way as to give some readers the impression that the remarks attributed to a member of the CPS came from me, I should like to take the opportunity to say that this was not the case. Nor do I believe that anyone else in the CPS, or formerly in it, would have spoken in this vein. The assertions were a malicious invention, just as much of the rest was, as you could tell for yourself. (I fear that some of it came from certain Conservative Party sources, which I shall not name).
