

PRINCESS MARGARET

Appearance in "PLAYERS" - Dean Martin's son and Ali McGraw frolicking at Wimbledon - removed by order of the Lord Chamberlain's Office. Major John Griffin (Clarence House) says:

"The Royal Family are not there for the use or promotion of films."

Mr. Titman (Lord Chamberlain's Office) says:

"It is a normal policy decision that no members of the Royal Family may be used in commercial film-making."

(Lord Maclean is Lord Chamberlain).

HONG KONG MEETING, 14 JUNE

Sir Murray MacLehose, the Governor of Hong Kong, today met the Prime Minister for about half an hour.

They had a useful exchange of views on the problems facing Hong Kong at the moment with particular reference to the influx of people from the Chinese mainland and the Vietnamese boat people.
