

Prime Minister

Principal points emerging from Management and Directors Meetings at Central Office this week

---

1. Thursday 20th September is the favoured day for the Euro By-Election. This is the week before the Liberal Conference.
2. Manchester Central have re-selected the candidate who fought for us on 3rd May.
3. In view of recent events Anthony Royle is being urged to tighten up basic assessments of candidates' financial backgrounds.
4. The Labour Party are not being helpful in trying to find Euro MPs a room at Westminster.
5. The CTU have changed the time of year for their Annual Conferences at your request. They will now take place every November instead of February/March.
6. ✓ David Harris has been approached to edit Monthly News.
7. Conservatives in Teeside Thornaby have complained about Ian Wigglesworth's Election Expenses. He will have to seek relief. It is thought that he could be in serious trouble.

Richard
19.7.79