

Prime Minister's speech at Dinner to Celebrate the Success of the Falkland Campaign.

10 DOWNING STREET

Tomorrow, in the City of London the nation will show our gratitude and admiration to the Task Force whose magnificent ~~and valiant~~ deeds liberated <sup>the people of</sup> the Falkland Islands from occupation and reversed South Georgia's Southern Islands. Thank

To-night is a more private occasion. I ~~felt it right that~~ wanted some of you - and it could only be some - who bore the awesome responsibilities on the battlefield to come together with ~~the~~ a few of us who with equal anxiety - took the ~~essential~~ <sup>essential</sup> decisions and made the ~~strategic~~ <sup>strategic</sup> recovery plans here. To whom we uphold one of the most remarkable ~~with~~ <sup>with</sup> the modern wars.
