

MR. GOW

It has been proposed that I have lunch at the CPS with two of the Blue Chips Group - I believe Patten and Waldegrave. I can't see any real objection, but I thought I ought to let you know.

One of my very good friends, and an extraordinarily strong supporter of the Prime Minister, Dr. Edmund Goldberger, has suggested that Julian Amery has turned from being a vague Wet to a strong supporter of the Prime Minister.* Over the past few months I have talked to Julian on a number of occasions, and I'm apt to believe that Goldberger is right. It may be useful in the months ahead.

* He was converted by Goldberger!
