HOUSE OF COMMONS
LONDON SW1A 0AA

1st November, 1978

You will, no doubt have seen the closed shop stories on the front and back pages of the latest issue of "The Free Nation" (27th October).

I hope you will agree that these raise very clear questions of principle which we ought to seek an opportunity of raising preferably in the House and certainly I think we ought to discuss them at our forthcoming Stepping Stones meeting. In a well balanced world a body bearing the high sounding title of National Council for Civil Liberties ought to be pressing the case of Mr. Peter Roberts as vigourously as NAFF.

I am copying this letter to our Stepping Stones colleagues.
